

Achieving Greater Depth in Reading and Writing in Years 5 and 6

Course Information

Date: 30th March 2020

Venue: Ravensmead Primary School, Chapel Street, Bignall End, Stoke-on-Trent, ST7 8QD

Time: 09:00-12:00

Cost: £80

Course Leader: Claire Hubbard

Course Overview

This course will look at some of the higher order reading and writing skills that the children could experience, in order to be given the potential to reach the embedded/greater depth standards of the National Curriculum. The TAFs will be referenced alongside the curriculum, with a view to demonstrating how to provide the opportunities to challenge and support the more able children, both through activities and games. Participants will be able to share ideas and reference some of the most recent STA materials that are available, linked to current moderation advice and training.

Course Content

- Developing reading comprehension in Y5 and 6
- Strategies to support reading at greater depth in Y5 and 6
- Differences between expected and greater depth
- Developing writing skills in Y5 and 6
- Developing vocabulary and grammatical structures
- Examples of writing at greater depth
- Focus for greater depth in Y5 and 6
- Assessing work at or near greater depth
- Greater depth and moderation

The training will make explicit links to texts and the National Curriculum as well as improving pupils' confidence. Guidance will also be given on the Key Stage 2 Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar test.
