Course Information

Date: 25th January 2022

Venue: Online (Zoom)

Time: 09:15-11:45

Cost: £60

Course Leader: Sarah Huggins

Course Overview

This course is aimed at school staff who have responsibility for wellbeing and mental health in school. The focus of this session is on children and young people and we will consider how to successfully implement a whole school approach to promote positive mental health.

The session will support schools to address aspects of both Personal Development and Behaviour requirements for Ofsted.

Course Objectives:

- to consider the factors which enable a school to promote positive mental health for children and young people
- to review current practice in school and identify areas for improvement
- to explore a range of resources and strategies to implement
- to develop an action plan to promote positive mental health
